

March 31, 2016

Publication of Provincial Court policy regarding online access to criminal case information through Court Services Online

In the course of a broad public consultation in the summer and fall of 2015 regarding online access to criminal case information the Court received more than 60 submissions from individuals and groups. The policy the Court has developed with the help of these contributions will be released and published on the Court's website www.provincialcourt.bc.ca on April 6, 2016.