

Provincial Court
of British Columbia

The October 2024 BC Provincial Court Judicial Complement Report is now available.

Each month, the Court reports changes in its complement of judges in a Judicial Complement Report posted on the website. The report lists the appointments, retirements, and elections to sit part time as a senior judge that occurred in the previous month.

The Court's current complement of judges is provided, based on the number of judicial full-time equivalents available to the Court. This is distinct from the number of judges, since some work part-time.
