OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

FAM 09

PRACTICE DIRECTION

CONSENT ADJOURNMENT (FLA/FMEA)

Purpose

To set out the procedure for adjourning matters under the Family Law Act, S.B.C. 2011, c. 25 (FLA) or the Family Maintenance Enforcement Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 127 (FMEA) from one court date to another or to adjourn generally.

Application

This practice direction applies to all court registries in the Province.

Direction

1. Until further direction, counsel (“filing counsel”) may complete and file a Consent Adjourning Form (Form) by email to the applicable local court registry to adjourn matters, other than trials, under the FLA or FMEA from one court date to another or to adjourn generally, where at least one party is represented by counsel and the filing counsel has obtained the consent of all other parties or their counsel.
2. Filing counsel shall use one Form for each court file and each court date to be adjourned, and may only use the Form where counsel is adjourning a matter from one court date to another with the same time estimate (or less). The Consent Adjourning Form cannot be used to adjourn trials. See Rule 114 of the Provincial Court Family Rules, B.C. Reg. 120/2020 for the procedure to adjourn a trial date.
3. On the Form, filing counsel shall select either: (a) “Adjourned to date/time/courtroom” or (b) “Adjourned generally”. If filing counsel selects (a), counsel shall contact the court registry to obtain the new court date/time/courtroom to put in the Form, except for Family Management Conferences (FMCs) where counsel shall contact the Judicial Case Manager for the new court date/time/courtroom.

4. Filing counsel shall email the Form to the applicable local court registry by 4:00 p.m. at least two clear business days in advance of the scheduled appearance.
5. Except where adjourned generally, filing counsel shall provide all other parties or their counsel with a copy of the filed Form with the new court date and appearance details obtained from the court registry or the Judicial Case Manager.
